Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested his wonderful and powerful powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. SERRAN, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. E. O. W. 1246113

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all kinds of Skin Eruptions. This Salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by G. W. Longwell & Co.

CATARRH.

Ely's Cream Balm is making havoc with the old styles of treating Catarrh. Cream Balm, a new idea, combines simplicity and accessibility of application with the most decided beneficial results. This compound is based upon long experience, and requires but a fair trial to convince the most skeptical of its intrinsic value. The disagreeable operation of forcing a quart of liquid through the nose, and the use of snuffs that only excite and give but temporary relief, are already being discarded and condemned.

Dollars, which might otherwise be thrown away by resorting to ineffectual medicines, are saved by purchasing this inexpensive specific for bodily pain and remedy for affections of the throat, lungs, stomach, liver and bowels. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil, which does not deteriorate, and is thorough and pure. Public attention is called to advertisement in another column.

Worth Knowing.

Cream Balm has the property of soothing local irritation. Sores in the nasal passages are healed up in a few days. Headache, the effect of Catarrh, is dissipated in an almost magical manner. Expectoration is made easy. Sense of taste and smell is more or less restored. Bad taste in the mouth and unpleasant breath, where it results from catarrh, is overcome. The nasal passages, which have been closed up for years, are made free. Buy a bottle for 50 cents and you will recommend it, or try a 10-cent sample bottle. For sale by Duncombe, Stearns & Co.

"Prostration" has been the source of more evil in this world than can be estimated, and has caused more suffering from bodily pain and diseases which result from this really wicked neglect of a timely remedy, than there would have been by fully one-half, had the means been at hand to ward off the destroyer. How many a slight cold neglected has resulted in consumption; a pain in the hips a deformed and painful limb for life? No, let the first symptoms of any disease be met by an antidote. If you feel a pain in your back, a rheumatic twinge in your limbs, catarrh in your head, any of the nervous diseases which may lay you on a bed of pain for the balance of your life, let us counsel you to get a bottle of Lawson's Cure, or, better still, buy a bottle at once and keep it ready for use.

Miss Rosa Davey is spending the week in Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Melcher arrived in town last Tuesday from Logansport, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Manley were the guests of I. B. Conner and family last week.

Chas. H. Thomas and Miss Nancy Ford, both of Bangor, were married Sept. 21st.

A gang of fourteen counterfeiters were arrested near Coloma last week.

A farmer near Grand Junction has lost seven or eight head of cattle. Thieves.

The Disciples of Bangor are agitating the subject of building a church edifice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ciapp left for Boston, Mass., last Monday, where they will spend several weeks.

Miss Rhoda Munger, of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting her many friends in this village, her former home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Mead, of Auburn, N. Y., are visiting relatives in this village and vicinity. Mrs. Mead is a daughter of Mr. Charles Hopson, Sr.

A pumpkin-pie social will be held at the residence of Geo. W. Matthews, next Tuesday evening. Everybody invited to go and have a good time.

Mr. M. Snow is erecting a building on his premises on Kalamazoo street, which he intends to use as a store-room for stoves, plows, etc.

Our thanks are again due to Mrs. J. Hangerford, of Waverly, for a beautiful bouquet, intended for the Blue Ribbon Club, but as no meeting was held we were the lucky recipients.

Mr. E. Welch, of Antwerp, has come to Iowa to arrange for entering the sheep-raising and wool-growing business, an enterprise in which we hope he may have an abundance of prosperity.

News has been received here of the death of Frank Olds in Santa Barbara, Cal., about three weeks ago. Mr. Olds will be remembered as a former resident of this place. Mrs. Olds is at present in town at the residence of her father, Mr. Ostrander.

Those men who expect a minister of the gospel to give them one thousand five hundred dollars worth of grace for an eight hundred dollar salary are near relatives of those who demand local notices in their home papers for nothing, and do their advertising on country fences and dilapidated hog-pens.

Just before his banishment to Chatham, the editor of the Decatur Buffington stated in his paper that "Coal oil rubbed on the neck and head will cure hog cholera; we have tried it." That probably was the reason he had to be banished. He was over here the other day bragging about the whisky part of his rations.

Weddings: Sept. 11th, Walter O. Gage and Miss Dora Baughman, both of Lawrence.—Sept. 23d, John W. Grills, of Bangor, to Miss Loretta Meacham, of Lawrence.—Alden Knight of Lawrence, and Miss Druilla Pendill, of Arlington.

Robert McGann and Dan Canard, of Decatur, went walnuting Saturday and coming home in the evening were considerably intoxicated. They had some words, after which Canard drew a knife and cut McGann up so badly that he is not expected to live. Canard has left for parts unknown.

The two-cent postal card is coming, and will soon be in general circulation. It has two stamps, one at each end, and spaces for two messages. The sender who desires information valuable to himself occupies one of the spaces, and the return correspondent the other. One stamp is canceled at the office from which it is originally sent, and the other at the return office.

Two mad dogs were killed in Kalamazoo a few days ago.

William Phillips, of Keeler, had all the fun of a runaway accident, and it only cost him a broken leg.

Mrs. M. A. Crane has just returned from a week's stay in Chicago, buying her large stock of millinery, fancy goods and dress trimmings, and visiting the grand openings.

A part of the new liquor law will probably be tested in the Supreme Court, some of the lawyers claiming that it requires the filing of the increased bonds, and others asserting that the bonds issued under the old law hold good until May 1, 1880.

Mr. E. Welch who was and is the owner of a fine wooled flock of very heavy shearing sheep, sold five ewe lambs, at twenty-five dollars a head, on Monday last. These are the ones that he had intended to exhibit at the Fair this week. This will account for their absence from the Fair grounds.

Two scientific lectures per day will be part of the show at the Hillsdale county fair. People attend fairs to examine results, not to listen to banal speeches of any kind. That is all wrong, and should be treated as a nuisance.—Speech-making, whether of a scientific nature or otherwise, should be made to audiences called together for that purpose.

ED. MOSS AND CATTLE.

Some time since we noticed the purchase and shipment to Iowa, by Mr. Ed. Moss, of a head of five hundred young cattle.

On Wednesday last Mr. Moss made a shipment of six car loads of young cattle bought in this immediate vicinity, and one car of fine wooled sheep, also bought here.

Mr. Moss seems well pleased with our people and the quality of the cattle and sheep purchased from our farmers. This is the third shipment made by him this season from here—and which has put quite a large sum of money into the pockets of our farmers, and to be distributed by them among all classes of our people.

While some have been lamenting that the cattle trade of Texas and Kansas were spoiling the stock business with us, Mr. Moss is demonstrating to them that the west wants all our surplus stock to consume the heavy corn and hay crops of Iowa, and that cattle raising is one of the best industries the farmer and land owner can engage in.

There exists at the west a want of cattle for feeding purposes, and this want Mr. Moss is engaged in supplying to a considerable extent. We understand that his efforts are highly appreciated by the people of his own locality, who have as much confidence in him as he has inspired in our people who have come in contact with him. He is spoken of by those who have had dealings with him as a very fair dealing man, who does just as he agrees.

Mr. E. Welch accompanied him west this week with a view of entering into the sheep business in Iowa. They inform us that they shall draw upon our people for a considerable number of sheep to stock sheep-walks in south eastern Iowa, in which business we wish them an abundance of success.

HARTFORD LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

All the builders are rushing their work, as they realize that winter will soon be with us.

S. N. Warren is just moving his residence on South Main street, on to a lot south-east of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Humphrey is spending two or three weeks with her friends in Ohio.

Several parties from this place visited the Grand Rapids fair and report a big show, and a nice time.

A thirteen year old son of Joseph Easton died last Friday night. He was supposed to be recovering from scarlet fever when a blood-vessel broke in his stomach, causing his death. He was buried from the M. E. church on Sunday.

Our barber, John Holmes, has sold out to James Vanwort, from Kalamazoo, formerly of this place.

Lewis Walker came near losing an eye one day last week, as it got hit with a lathe, causing blindness for several days. It is now some better.

Ed. Waterman is fast convincing the public that a hotel can be prosperously run on temperance principles, as he is now doing a lively business on that platform. We bespeak for him the generous patronage of the law abiding and order loving public.

Perhaps it would be well for me to correct through your paper some of the erroneous ideas that the public mind may gather from an article printed in the Lawrence Advertiser of two weeks ago and another gathered from it in the Press and Courier of last week, concerning the Methodist charge here. While the statement that the charge was behind about two hundred dollars was correct, it would have looked much more honorable in the writer to have stated the whole truth and brought to light the fact that while Hartford paid nearly every dollar of her apportionment, Lawrence was behind nearly or quite two hundred dollars. The conditions being the same last year, Hartford does not feel like bearing the blame and the shame any longer. The Hartford correspondent of the Advertiser again verifies the truth of the saying "it is easier to preach than to practice," as he preaches quite a nice sermon on the duties of Christians for a man who does not attend church himself and gives nothing to support the gospel. His assertion that "now all the ministers refuse to come," is a mistake, as Elder Bell would have been glad to have returned had Lawrence been detached, and the one who was put down for this point had decided to locate before receiving his appointment; and more than this, the Presiding Elder writes that he will yet do well by us.—Perhaps there are a few places where those outside the church do so little toward supporting the gospel, and yet we do not wish to be accused of any more than we are guilty of.

ALMENA LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We noticed in the True Northerner of Sept. 5th an account of Mrs. Babcock, of Waverly, (aged sixty-eight years), doing the work for a family of seven persons; all of which from personal acquaintance we know to be true. And now Almena comes to the front with a rival in aged labor. Mrs. Amasa Tenny, a resident of Almena, aged seventy-three years, has done her work alone (washing included) the past summer for a family of six persons, five of whom are grown men all using separate beds, as no two will sleep together. The men having hauled many loads of water-melons to Kalamazoo, Mrs. T. has had to get up many nights at twelve, one or two o'clock and get a warm meal, make tea and put up dinner for them to eat on the road, and then go hold the lantern so they could see to latch up the team. If Waverly can beat Mrs. T. we think they will have to trot out Old Industry. We should think these old veterans would cry out from the depths of their souls,

Oh, mortal man shall the time ere be When woman is not a slave to thee? If that time could come without a row, We would to God that it were now.

On Thursday of last week two ladies with a horse and carriage coming from toward Paw Paw called at Mrs. Philip Hunkley's and inquired the way to Mrs. Frank Cate's. Mrs. H. informed them that Mrs. C. lived in the next house on the hill, and they drove on, but through mistake turned the corner and stopped at the residence of Mrs. Jacob Horning. Finding no one at home they placed on the doorstep a tin pan and a jug with a mop in it, and then went their way. It is now a mystery to Mrs. C. who the would-be visitors were, and also to Mrs. H., who it is that would mop out of a jug. Try again, ladies. Mrs. C. would have been glad to entertain you, as she was at home.

Married.—In Lawton, the 21st inst. by Rev. H. West, Mr. E. Russell Lyman to Miss Sarah J. Griffin, both of Paw Paw.

The northern conference of the Free Methodists was held at Holly, last week.

Miss Marie Coffinbury, daughter of S. C. Coffinbury, of Constantine, has been admitted to practice at the bar of St. Joseph county.

The Lowell Journal attempts to explain what a capias ad respondendum is, but is not clear about it. A capias ad respondendum is the Latin name for a legal invitation issued by the sheriff, and it means "Come or send a hand."

It takes twelve years to go through all the grades and graduate from the Detroit High School, and the pupil is then ready to begin learning some of that "horse sense" which has carried business men to success.—M. Quad.

John Parker of Kalamazoo sold $110 worth of onions from three-quarters of an acre. Better than wheat.

The Michigan bee breeders will assemble in convention at Battle Creek, October 13.

The Ypsilanti Commercial says that the average normal senior is a poor writer, poor speaker, and poor grammarian.

Two young men who insulted two girls on the streets of St. Joseph have been fined $50 each.

An exchange says some business men never spend a cent for advertising, either in the newspaper or any other way. In the stores of such men are generally seen old barrel heads, on which are inscribed in chalk or charcoal such devices as these: Flower, Korn, Meal, Potatoes, Pork, Cheese, Kaliker, Kountry produce, bawls and sould, goods cheap for Kash, Tee, Sugar, etc.

A colored woman who does not bear very plainly the marks of her race has been spending the summer at one of the most fashionable watering-places at Winston, N. C., where she passed herself off as a white lady of distinguished connections from Michigan.

There is a saloon-keeper in Hillsdale who has served a notice on all the other saloon-keepers of the city, forbidding the selling or giving of liquor to his son. This shows that saloon men at least have faith in the law. But this same man will probably keep dealing out the infernal poison to other men's sons and luxuriate on his ill-gotten gains.

Two girls and a youth in their teens, of Coldwater, went boat riding the other day. Although they did not return at night no one was alarmed, as the parents of the girls supposed they were staying together, but when morning dawned and nothing was heard of them a crowd turned out and an exciting search was commenced. The large factory of W. H. Stevens & Co., in which the young man was book-keeper, shut down and sent all hands out to aid, when word came that the three had taken breakfast in Orangeville. The feeling of alarm gave place to one of indignation, but when the parties returned they explained that they could not get home the evening previous on account of the stiff breeze which came up.

A NOVELTY IN WEDDING CARDS.—It consists of a double card, like the new memorial cards, and is edged with a pale blue and silver border, with the word "Marriage" in the center of the first page, in silver. The second page has the invitation "At Home," after such a date as the wedding pair may decide upon, together with their address. The third page is appropriated to their names, the date of marriage, and the church and the minister by whom and where the ceremony was performed; the fourth page being reserved for the complimentary expression, "With our kind regards," to which their initials are appended.

A young lady who didn't admire the custom in vogue among her sisters of writing a letter and then cross-writing it to Higgabity, said she would prefer her epistles "without an overskirt."
